

Moroccan fiber optic cable home use price

Overview

Maroc Telecom's fiber options start at 500 dirhams for 100 Mbps, with a premium option of 1000 dirhams for 200 Mbps. Let's compare with the prices charged in Morocco's immediate neighborhood — namely Algeria and Tunisia — as well as with those in Spain, France, and Canada, where many Moroccans living abroad (MREs) have settled. From this chart, several takeaways emerge. I have been a consumer of Maroc Telecom until I switched to Inwi in 2021. I was suffering from inconsistent internet speeds, sometimes even 12hr to 48hr. Their fiber optic options are what really impressed me. Compare all Moroccan fiber & broadband offers. From May 1, 2025, Morocco Telecom will apply a new pricing for its fiber optic offers: The 100 MB/S offer (new) will be offered at 400 DH/month the 200 MB/s offer at 500 DH/month The 1 GB/s offer will be marketed at 1,000 DH/month Whatever the offer chosen, subscribers will now benefit from. After two years of decline, the Moroccan optical fiber cables market increased by X% to $X in 2025. In general, the total consumption indicated a noticeable increase from 2012 to 2025: its value increased at an average annual rate of X% over the last twelve years.
